Talking Books Plus Program

State of RI Office of Library and Information Services is offering their book and magazine collection FREE to visually impaired or physically handicapped RI seniors who have difficulty reading standard print or are unable to hold a book or magazine while reading. There are over 68,000 titles available!

This program is now available at the JSC at no cost to eligible seniors. To qualify and participate in the program, an application must be filled out and submitted for approval.

Applications and further information will be available from the JSC staff or in our library.
